

EUROPEAN ORDER POINT SYSTEM

What is the European Order Point System?

- The European Order Point System will help you determine which business unit(s) can assist you with your order for a particular Anagram item.
- Inventory Status* - Often time's more than one business unit will carry the same item. This indication does not provide inventory status; however, the business unit you contact will be able to provide you with availability.
- Business Units included in the system are Amscan Europe, Amscan UK and Anagram
- Licensed Items* -- This system does not determine license rights, therefore, you must check with our customer service as to whether or not a licensed item can be purchased in your location.

Item #: Fulfillment Company:

Not all licenses are available in all locations. Please check with our customer service to see if a license is available in your location.
